

Today we have another of our Year 1 to Year 6 English challenges! It's been great seeing all of your creative ideas; hopefully you will enjoy working on this challenge together too!

Click this link to take you to the same website we have used before.

Today's challenge is all to do with recipes...

Scroll down the page until you find this one:

JOANNA NADIN

Watch the video where you will meet the author and illustrator Joanna Nadin.

She will introduce you to 'The Worst Class in the World' and give you a challenge that is all to do with biscuits!

Remember, you may need longer than 10 minutes to really get stuck in to your ideas!

Make sure you send your completed challenges to your teachers – we have really enjoyed seeing your creations over the last couple of weeks.
